Now Available via EBSCO!

America: History & Life

America: History & Life is an index of literature covering the history and culture of the United States and Canada from prehistory to the present. With indexes to more than 2,000 journals from over 200 countries, America: History & Life is an important bibliographic reference tool for students and scholars of U.S. and Canadian history.

Historical Abstracts

Historical Abstracts complements the America: History and Life database by covering the history of the world, excluding the United States and Canada, from 1450 to the present. Topics include world history, military history, women's history, history of education, and more.

In 2006, Historical Abstracts and America: History and Life began adding retrospective coverage for important historical journals and by project's end coverage for these journals will extend back to the late-19th century.

NEW HISTORY REFERENCE

Slavery in the United States: a social, political, and historical encyclopedia.

Ref. E441 .S635 2007 V.1-V.2

Eighteenth-century British historians

Jenkins, Ellen J.

Ref. PN451 .D5 VOL. 336

Day by day: the thirties / Rodney P. Carlisle, general editor.

Ref. D723 .D39 2007 V.1-V.2

Use RSS and...the Hekman Library “new books” shelf comes to you!

Hekman Library now offers RSS feeds of new titles arriving daily in your discipline. Stop by and browse or subscribe via e-mail at:

library home → A-Z site index → new titles & choose a discipline

RESEARCH

Stress,

Let us help!

Stop by the Research Assistance Desk for twice the service. During the busy hours, we have trained student assistants that can help get you started in your search. Seasoned librarians are also available to tackle the tough questions.

Coffee & Cookies @ the Research Desk

Need a little break in the evenings and on Saturday afternoons? The librarians will offer free coffee and cookies until December 14.

If your finals are over early, don’t forget the Cayvan Collection is home to the library’s recorded media which includes our CDs and DVDs. Check them out
Now Available via EBSCO!

America: History & Life

“America: History & Life” is an index of literature covering the history and culture of the United States and Canada from prehistory to the present. With indexes from over 1,400 journals and book reviews, “America: History & Life” is an important bibliographic reference tool for students and scholars of U.S. and Canadian history.

Historical Abstracts

Historical Abstracts complements the “America: History and Life” database by covering the history of the world, excluding the United States and Canada, from 1450 to the present. Topics include world history, military history, women’s history, history of education, and more.

In 2006, Historical Abstracts and America: History and Life began adding retrospective coverage for important historical journals and by project’s end coverage for these journals will extend back to the late-19th century.

NEW HISTORY REFERENCE

Slavery in the United States: a social, political, and historical encyclopedia.
Ref. E441 .S635 2007 V.1-V.2

Eighteenth-century British historians
Jenkins, Ellen J.
Ref. PN451 .D5 VOL. 336

Day by day: the thirties / Rodney P. Carlisle, general editor.
Ref. D723 .D39 2007 V.1-V.2

Use RSS and...the Hekman Library “new books” shelf comes to you!

Hekman Library now offers RSS feeds of new titles arriving daily in your discipline. Stop by and browse or subscribe via e-mail at:

library home Æ A-Z site index Æ new titles & choose a discipline

RESEARCH

Stress, Let us help!

Stop by the Research Assistance Desk for twice the service. During the busy hours, we have trained student assistants that can help get you started in your research.

Coffee & Cookies @ the Research Desk

Need a little break in the evenings and on Saturday afternoons? The librarians will offer free coffee and cookies until December 14.

If your finals are over early, don’t forget the Cayvan Collection is home to the library’s recorded media which includes our CDs and DVDs. Check them out.