Award-Winning Children’s Books at Hekman Library

Each January, the American Library Association (ALA) recognizes outstanding children’s and young adult literature with its prestigious Newbery and Caldecott Medals and Printz Award, and each year, Hekman Library adds these award-winning titles to our Children’s Literature Collection (located on the 5th floor). Watch for the newest winners to arrive soon!

2011 Newbery Medal: Moon Over Manifest, written by Clare Vanderpool

2011 Caldecott Medal: A Sick Day for Amos McGee, illustrated by Erin E. Stead, written by Philip C. Stead

2011 Printz Award: Ship Breaker, written by Paolo Bacigalupi

Access Library Resources from Home

To view or renew items you’ve checked out:
Library homepage > Quick Links > My Library Account (Renew)*

To access the library’s Research Databases:
Library homepage > Quick Links > Research Databases*

*For both, when prompted, log in using your KV/Moodle username and password.

Seventh Annual Hekman Library Disc Golf Tournament

March 4, 2011, Tee Off: 8:30 pm
Location: In the Library

Open to all Calvin students, staff, and faculty. Food will be provided as well as prizes for the 1st place and 2nd place teams. Come join the fun!

To register your team, look for more info on the Hekman Library website: http://library.calvin.edu.

Exploring Current Issues and Controversial Subjects

Develop an informed position with these resources:

Covering today’s most important issues and controversial subjects, CQ Researcher has been the choice of students and librarians for over 80 years. Each weekly issue—written by an experienced CQ Press reporter—is an in-depth, single topic report featuring more than 12,000 words of text and extensive bibliographies.

To access CQ Researcher, go to:
Library homepage > Quick Links > Research Databases*

*For both, when prompted, log in using your KV/Moodle username and password.

ProCon.org is a free website dedicated to "promoting critical thinking, education, and informed citizenship by presenting controversial issues in a straightforward, non-partisan, primarily pro-con format." Covers 40 topics, in areas ranging from business, education, health and medicine, politics, and science and technology.