

News and Services of the Hekman Library –May, 2006

Here I Am:

Now What On Earth Should I Be Doing?

A good question and the title of a book published in 2005 by CAS professor Quentin Schultze.

Learn what it means for you to fulfill your vocation as a follower of Jesus Christ. Discover, “practical ways to strive for excellence, spread hope, celebrate leisure, nurture community, and cultivate a legacy.”

More vocation related titles from Hekman Library:

Vocation (BV4740 .V63 2004 MRC)

This book deals with how our primary vocation (or calling) – to enter the Kingdom of God in faithful obedience – transforms our relationships, choice of jobs and careers.

Callings: twenty centuries of Christian wisdom on vocation (BV4740 .C32 2005)

This anthology compiles select passages on vocation and work from great writers of Christian history. Broken down into four sections each provides insight into relevant wisdom for today’s Christians.

Vocation: discerning our callings in life

(BV4740 .S34 2004)
Schuurman’s work is from the Reformed tradition with quotes from Calvinist authors. His view is everyone has a calling and this book will help you in your journey to find yours.

Need a study break?

May 1-13 from 5:00 PM- 10PM you will find treats for your enjoy. Coffee and cookies are provided to you by the librarians to help you stay awake while you study!

Before you invest the time and effort applying for a position to work for a company you are not familiar with why not search the Lexis Nexis database?

Whether your company is public, private or not-for-profit, national or international, this is the best and most comprehensive source!

Locate information on company histories, background information and financial information. Company competitors are identified in the Lexis Nexis Hoover’s Company Database.

What are the best jobs in America?

MONEY Magazine and Salary.com rate these careers for job prospects and salary. These are the best jobs in United States of America!

1. Software Engineer
2. College professor
3. Financial adviser
4. Human Resources Manager
5. Physician assistant
6. Market research analyst
7. Computer IT analyst
8. Real Estate Appraiser
9. Pharmacist
10. Psychologist

Visit the Career Catapult weblog for Calvin students! Find up to the minute career related articles and email “Aunt Bonnie” with your questions or comments.

"I have always imagined that Paradise will be a kind of library"

Jorge Luis Borges (1899 - 1986)