ArtAbstracts Research Database

Art Abstracts includes information compiled by specialists in all fields of art to provide an international perspective. It indexes nearly 400 major English-language periodicals, yearbooks, and museum bulletins, as well as a number of periodicals in European languages.

The Grand Rapids Humanities Council and Calvin are teaming up this March for the Great Women, Great Voices project. The project is an invitation for women to come to the television studio in the DeVos Communication Center with a family member or friend to interview you about life experience, family history or whatever story you wish to tell. Each participant will be given a keepsake DVD of the session.

Interviews will be scheduled for March 8, March 10-12 and March 15. There is no cost to participate but registration is required. Call 774-1776 to register.

Need an Art print? The Curriculum Center has a variety of art prints you can check out for a two week period. Stop by and see what is available.

ARTstor is an image collection which documents artistic traditions across all times and cultures and embraces architecture, painting, sculpture, photography, decorative arts, and design as well as many other forms of visual and material culture. The ARTstor Charter Collection currently contains nearly 500,000 images and is derived from the dozens of source collections which are the product of collaborations with libraries, museums, photographic archives, publishers, slide libraries, and individual artists, photographers, scholars, and teachers.

What are Subject Encyclopedias?

Subject encyclopedias are sometimes called special encyclopedias because they cover specialized topics rather than broad, general topics. Encyclopedia Britannica is a general encyclopedia. The Oxford Encyclopedia of Children's Literature is a subject encyclopedia. Articles in subject encyclopedias will summarize the major issues regarding a topic and will often provide a selective bibliography of the most important books and articles that have been written about the topic. The library has print and online encyclopedias on hundreds of different subjects. Most of these can be found in the reference collection on the 2nd Floor of the library. Encyclopedias on theological topics are located on the 4th Floor in Theological Reference.
