

Dutch Heritage Month at Calvin College!

Hekman Library homepage → research databases

With Calvin College's deep roots in the Dutch culture, Hekman Library has many excellent resources including databases and reference materials to aide scholars in their research. Below are a few examples of available resources:

Historical Abstracts is the leading bibliography database for historical study with indexing for more than 2,000 journals. In addition to key historical journals from virtually every major country, Historical Abstracts includes a selection of hundreds of journals in the social sciences and humanities that are of special interest to researchers and students of history.

JSTOR is a database consisting of only full-text articles from inter-disciplinary peer-reviewed journals. Journals are included on the basis of number of subscribers the journal has, citation analysis, recommendations from experts in the field, and the length of time that the journal has been published. Coverage for each title begins with the first publication, with most titles ending coverage between three and five years ago.
