

News and Services of the Hekman Library –October 2008

YES, WE'RE ALL VERY INTERESTED IN WHAT YOU'RE HAVING FOR DINNER
TONIGHT.

(Please keep phone conversations to yourself.)

While in the library, please set your phone to vibrate, or move to a stairwell or “Group Zone” for your conversations.

GET IN THE ZONE

In order to accommodate different study styles and needs, the library recently set up “zones”:

Group Zone - Collaborative study involving acceptable conversation.

Lounge Zone - Light reading & quiet conversation.

Community Zone - Quiet study with minimal distractions.

Quiet Zone - No talking; concentrated thinking and reading.

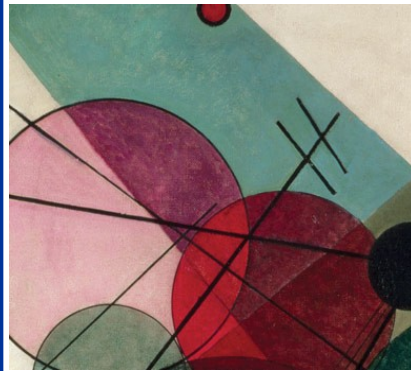

Maps of these different zones have been placed on tables and in carrels around the library. So find your zone, and let us know what you think of this arrangement!

DID YOU KNOW CAYVAN HAS AUDIOBOOKS?

Bring your iPod to Cayvan and have them download a book for you. To find out what is available, go to the Hekman Library homepage. In Webcat, select the Advanced Search tab, and under FORMAT, select Audio ebook. Click on the Search to get a full listing of these titles. Most are bestsellers, both fiction and non-fiction!

ARTSTOR

ARTstor is an image collection which documents artistic traditions across all times and cultures and embraces architecture, painting, sculpture, photography, decorative arts, and design as well as many other forms of visual and material culture. Modeled after JSTOR, ARTstor draws its content from libraries, museums, photographic archives, publishers, and individual scholars. You will locate this and other databases on the Hekman Library homepage under Research Databases.

Need More Art Information?

Grove's Dictionary of Art is for you! This collection of 34 volumes contains extensive information about art, artists, art critics, art collectors, and other areas connected to the art world. The dictionaries are global and contain several international contributors. You will find this excellent resource in the Reference Collection on the 2nd floor.
