

News and Services of the Hekman Library – February 2011

Award-Winning Children's Books at Hekman Library

Each January, the American Library Association (ALA) recognizes outstanding children's and young adult literature with its prestigious Newbery and Caldecott Medals and Printz Award, and each year, Hekman Library adds these award-winning titles to our Children's Literature Collection (located on the 5th floor). Watch for the newest winners to arrive soon!

Exploring Current Issues and Controversial Subjects

Develop an informed position with these resources:

Covering today's most important issues and controversial subjects, CQ Researcher has been the choice of students and librarians for over 80 years. Each weekly issue—written by an experienced CQ Press reporter—is an in-depth, single topic report featuring more than 12,000 words of text and extensive bibliographies.

To access CQ Researcher, go to:
Library homepage > Quick Links > Research Databases

ProCon.org is a free website dedicated to "promoting critical thinking, education, and informed citizenship by presenting controversial issues in a straightforward, non-partisan, primarily pro-con format." Covers 40 topics, in areas ranging from business, education, health and medicine, politics, and science and technology.
