

News and Services of the Hekman Library – September 2011

Hekman Library: Where Your Research Journey Begins

New to Calvin? Some ways you can learn more about the library:

Library Open House
September 14, 3-6 pm

Meet library staff, eat some food, and enter for a chance to win fun prizes, including a Kindle! New students especially are invited, but all are welcome.

Library Video Tour

If you miss the Open House, or want a different type of orientation to the library, watch the video tour posted online on our website.

Go to: Library home page > About > Library Maps

Just Ask Us!

Library staff are happy to answer any question about our services or resources. Ask anyone you see with a library name tag, or go directly to the Help Desk just inside the 2nd floor main entrance. You can also send us an e-mail or chat with us online from our library homepage!

Connect with Us ...

Join the Library Student Advisory Board

Interested in giving feedback on how we can improve the library? Then volunteer for the our Student Advisory Board! For more information, contact Lois Dye (ldye@calvin.edu).

Stay up-to-date on what's happening at Hekman Library!

Meet Your Research Guides

Hekman has nine librarians whose job it is to help you with your research projects. Get to know them—they can save you time and frustration!

Glenn Remelts Library Director

Glenn received his BS from GVSU, attended Western Michigan for his MLS (Masters of Library Science), and has an MA from Kansas State.

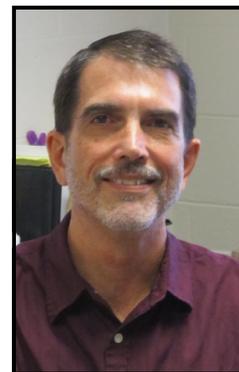

Glenn has worked at Calvin for 21 years.

Library liaison to depts of Biology, Chemistry & Biochemistry, Computer Science, Engineering, Mathematics & Statistics, Philosophy, and Physics & Astronomy.

Email: remelt@calvin.edu

Office: Library Rm. 306

Favorite Place in the Library: The highly anticipated new rare book storage.

Our long-time colleague, Government Documents Librarian Diane Vander Pol retired at the end of the summer. We will miss her! If you have questions about our Government Documents collection, please ask any of the Research Librarians.