

News and Services of the Hekman Library – November 2011

Celebrate in November

NaNoWriMo:
National Novel Writing Month

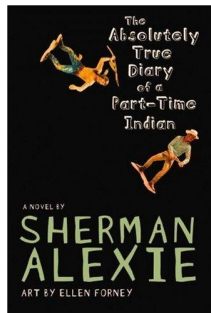

NaNoWriMo is the world's largest writing challenge and nonprofit literary crusade. Participants pledge to write 50,000 words in a month, starting from scratch on Nov. 1 and reaching "The End" by Nov. 30. Last year, over 200,000 individuals took on this challenge!

To learn more and to find out how you can participate, go to: <http://www.nanowrimo.org/>

Native American Heritage Month

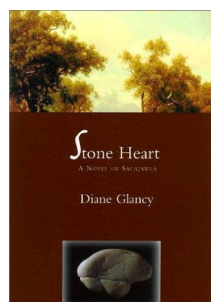

Find some writerly inspiration and honor contemporary Native American authors by checking out these novels in the Hekman Library collection:

The Absolutely True Diary of a Part-Time Indian / Sherman Alexie
PZ7 .A382 AB 2007
(5th floor, Children's Lit)

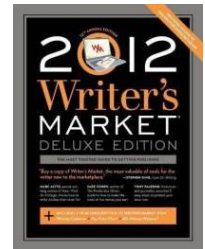

Shadow Tag / Louise Erdrich
PS3555.R42 S53 2011 (5th floor)

Stone Heart: A Novel of Sacajawea / Diane Glancy
PS3557 .L294 S7 2003 (5th floor)

Check out these New Books on Writing

2012 Writer's Market Deluxe Edition
Ref PN161 .W83 2012 (2nd floor)

Advertised as "The Most Trusted Guide to Getting Published," this resource offers practical advice for professional writers on such topics as how to manage your time, how to find the right publication for your work, and how to negotiate contracts.

As part of the deluxe edition, we also have single-login online access to WritersMarket.com. Ask any librarian for the login username and password.

Lit from Within: Contemporary Masters on the Art and Craft of Writing / edited by Kevin Haworth and Dinty W. Moore
PN145 .L58 2011
(New Books Area, 3rd floor)

And for help with your course papers...

The Rhetoric Center

Want to become a better writer?
Having trouble planning your next paper?

The friendly staff at the Rhetoric Center can help!

Stop by our cozy room in Hekman Library Rm. 207 (inside the 2nd floor entrance) to make an appointment.

Open Mon-Fri 9am-5pm, Mon-Thurs 7pm-9pm

